

Local High School Boy Now in Navy Marries USO Girl

Navy activity is important to U. S. defense, but it appeared today that Uncle Sam doesn't overlook the part that marriage plays in the American way of life.

This week, the good Uncle gave a special honeymoon leave to Robert Jensen, a former Torrance High School student.

He and the former Elaine Mauch of San Francisco aren't wasting any time. They left for Big Bear Lake yesterday to spend their last weeks together.

Jensen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen, 1633 W. 228th Street, will report back to active duty in the Philippine Sea after the honeymoon.

The young couple, both 19 years of age met at a USO in San Francisco, it is reported. Jensen's wife, a music major, played the piano, and it was love at first sight.

They were married at the Church of Nativity in Lomita, last Saturday.

Approximately 180 guests attended the ceremony. The maid of honor was Mrs. Miriam Solomon. Mrs. Genie Black and Miss Vivian McLean served as bridesmaids.

Fred Carr was the best man. The Bride marched down the aisle to organ music in an ice-blue satin, fingertip veil gown.

Warriors Lose

El Camino's football team played its heart out for their home-coming game over the weekend when they met the powerful Long Beach juggernaut.

However, when the final gun barked, the scoreboard tallied 40 for Long Beach and seven for El Camino.

Even with the defeat, the Warrior's were good sports. The rafters went wild when Coach Amby Schindler's Caminotes pushed over a touchdown during the closing minutes of the fourth quarter for their lone tally, which came as a result of a pass and a long run.

Nevertheless, Long Beach was not to be denied. The last play of the game, the Vikings passed and completed a touchdown play. During the half-time period, the gridiron was encircled by floats for the homecoming.

"We're not disappointed," said one El Camino reeler. "At least we got one touchdown, and you have to hand it to Long Beach—that team's really good."
